

November 21, 2013

To Whom It May Concern,

Matt Barber performed at Atria Woodbridge on November 5, 2013 and was a huge hit. His selection was perfect for our residents here and showed his interest in presenting a program that would appeal to seniors. Matt entertained us with music from the different eras and his selection showed his versatility as a performer. He engaged the residents and got several of them to dance around and sing along. I look forward to having Matt perform here again and I encourage you to have him at your community as well. Please reach out to me for any questions you may have or information on how to contact Matt Barber.

Sincerely,
